

Overview

Wallowa Resources

Wallowa Resources: Nils D. Christoffersen

Past timber management practices and fire exclusion have driven a colonization of the forested lands by more shade tolerant Douglas-fir and true firs, and a build-up of fuels to a level much greater than

With private, state and federal grant funding, Wallowa Resources has already purchased $2 million dollars in contract labor and supplies from County businesses. Project contracts exceeded $500, incentives for conservation are essential to maintaining the ecological compatibility of private land management and use adjacent to public lands. The current level and direction of federal action on these

Wallowa Resources: Nils D. Christoffersen